

Participant Consent Form

Project Title: Prefer Not To Say: an exploration of agency, privacy and care in positionality practices.

You are being invited to take part in a research project conducted by Cecilia Mezzi, Associate Lecturer at Central Saint Martins, University of the Arts London, as part of her PgCert Academic Practice in Art, Design and Communication. Before you decide whether to participate, it is important that you understand why the research is being done and what it will involve. Please take time to read this form carefully, and feel free to ask any questions before signing.

All data collected will be anonymised at the point of collection.

- I understand that I have given my consent to participate to this intervention.
- I understand that I have given approval for my opinions to be included in the research outputs. Anything I say may be used in academic papers relating to the project, although these quotations will be anonymous.
- I have read the information sheet about the research project, which I have been asked to take part in and have been given a copy of this information to keep.
- What is going to happen and why it is being done has been explained to me, and I have had the opportunity to discuss the details and ask questions.
- Having given this consent I understand that I have the right to withdraw from the research programme at any time without disadvantage to myself and without having to give any reason.
- I hereby fully and freely consent to participation in the study, which has been fully explained to me.
